

13 Traits of Discipleship

1. Disciples: Restore who has fallen, knowing we could fall.
2. Disciples: Scrutinize all things, but don't scrutinize people.
3. Disciples: Don't need to flaunt it, nor have a need to convince anyone, that you are right, even when shown that you are.
4. Disciples: Avoid the strife at all costs and refuse to be divisive, even when everyone else is.
5. Disciples: Exhibit maturity without making others feel stupid or insignificant.
6. Disciples: Can still create peace while others are in confusion and have no direction.
7. Disciples: Are not afraid to touch the 'untouchable', and will go places where the weak and religious fear to go.
8. Disciples: Will not be drawn into foolish questions that only breed doubt and; distractions from real issues.
9. Disciples: Rest in the time of storm, with eyes to see what others are blind to.
10. Disciples: Know the value of words, like when to be silent and when to make each word count.
11. Disciples: Know their identity in Christ, you are aware of your weaknesses and do not underestimate them.
12. Disciples: Exhibit maturity with love and wisdom. Live in Joy and understand their strength is found outside of their own humanity.
13. Disciples: Are linked with the Holy Spirit, as a son, a servant, a king, and a man. IE: Eagle, Ox, Lion, and Man.
